Foreword

In this 1960 Saga, we have tried to create the illusion of a beginning and an ending. As your high school career began, you possessed the feeling of uncertainty but acquired the desire to achieve greatness. During the following year, you strived to obtain your goals. When Woodward's doors opened, once more, last fall, you carried the responsibility of upper classmen. Now, as you end your high school career, you forge ahead to the many new beginnings which life has to offer.

*Out of the scabbard of the night,
By God's hand drawn,
Flashes his shining sword of light,
And lo,—the dawn!*

Dedication

To the class of 1960 . . .

. . . the '60 Saga Staff dedicates this book.

In the fall of 1956, the class of '60—651 strong— burst into Woodward's halls. Now, as Seniors, this class can look back on their many accomplishments with great satisfaction. They were the first to have standardized class rings, they had a Merit Scholarship finalist, and they contributed to the winning of the City Championship in basketball and second place in football.

In a few days, this class of 1960 will achieve another first—they will be the first class in the city to ever graduate from the Peristyle of the Toledo Museum of Art.

Administration

Surrounding Mr. Rettig are the members of the senior cabinet: Don Kornowa, Sergeant-at-Arms; Gay Criscio, Secretary; Ken Oehlers, President; Mr. Rettig; Jim Perrine, Vice President; Linda Searle, Reporter; Janis Baumanis, Treasurer.

Principal's Messages

Belief in what one is doing is the hidden key to success. Woodward High School has accepted the challenge many times this year and each time has shown an unconquerable team spirit. Our fine year has been due to the belief that Woodward students have in their school and their never-tiring desire to make it a better school. We believe we have made progress but intend to set our goals higher next year. Working together is the only way we can attain our goal.

Good luck, seniors, and we hope you may carry the Woodward spirit with you.

Robert E. Kelly

Students find Mr. Raymond McNeill, assistant principal in charge of activities, helping when planning club projects.

Administering tests is an important job of Miss Ethel Kerlin, assistant principal in charge of instruction.

Counselors

Mr. David Krost, assistant principal and dean of boys, gives students invaluable advice on career and other personal problems that they may have.

Helping students to plan their course of study is one of the many duties of Mrs. Maxine Mills, assistant principal and dean of girls.

A sympathetic attitude has earned for Miss Anne Miller, assistant principal and dean of girls, the confidence of those girls who have come to her with social and school problems.

Mr. Virgil Sloan, assistant principal and dean of boys, assumes the responsibility of coping with various disciplinary measures.

Carolyn Kwiatkowski, a new addition to the clerical staff, has proved to be a great asset to Mrs. Manton.

In Memoriam

In our busy life everyday, people die, and few beyond the immediate relatives and friends take note of their passing.

Woodward High School has lost a good and faithful teacher, Howard Phipps. He was a quiet man, patient and kindly, but a man of great learning and high scholarship—a Yale man. He taught Latin and history or rather he taught youth.

Woodward High School is better for his having been here. I would say as the Romans said of a departed brother, "Ave atque Vale"—"Hail and Farewell," Mr. Phipps.

—quoted from David Voss

The largest graduating class in Woodward's history, the class of 1960, has left scholastic and athletic standards that will set the pace for classes to come. From its first major undertaking, its sophomore dance, "Tropical Interlude," to graduation, the senior class has actively supported and served Woodward.

Activities came rapidly this year. The hustle of picture taking was quickly pushed aside by the election. While our college-bound seniors were studying for scholarship tests, the class saw the result of years of work, our football team—a respected member of the City League. After the excitement of Christmas came rehearsals for the class play. Spring was ushered in by good-byes as seniors departed on the trip. In a final rush of activity came the memorable prom and banquet.

At last . . . graduation. Who can know the mixed emotions of that last moment? Of course they will see each other again, but the realization of graduation always brings tears. Now they stand in an open doorway ready and able to meet the future.

Look behind the success of the senior class and you'll find President Ken Oehlers. His spirit and eagerness to serve make him one of our most looked up to seniors.

Graduation . . . an end
and a beginning.

Juniors

As juniors, the class of 1961 proved to be very enthusiastic. They petitioned successfully to receive their class rings early. The junior dance, at which the king and queen reigned, highlighted the traditional junior week. The varsity cheerleaders this year were composed entirely of junior girls. This is an example of the school spirit that has made the class of '61 extra-special.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Polar Bear Mascot—Connie French

Captain of Varsity Cheerleaders—Carolyn Flaczynski

Coach—Leo Robie

With the loss of Carolyn Flaczynski to Bedford, the varsity cheerleaders were left without a captain. Doris Sakheim assumed the position and ably led the cheerleaders to a successful year.

Sophomores

This year's sophomores returned from vacation with enthusiasm and started the year off with a spirited and colorful campaign. The officers were chosen from many candidates and have proved their ability to lead by the tremendous success of the sophomore dance. Since the sophomore student body has also shown a great willingness to work, they confidently look forward to making their next two years as happy and successful as this one has been.

Activities

'60 Saga

Checking the files for accuracy—Judy Jorgenrud, Senior Editor, and Barbara Lewandowski, Assistant.

Gathering ideas from old Sagas—Bonnie Kriener, Club Editor, and Eileen Roszonski, Assistant.

Our efficient Editor-in-Chief takes time out from her busy schedule—Marilyn Jacob.

Conferring with each other before drawing up definite plans—Donna Long, Junior Editor, and Ruth Robarge, Sophomore Editor.

Using the blackboard is the best way to make a layout design—Joan Ross, Girls' Sports Editor, and Kathy Vogelpohl, Freshman Editor.

Working on a yearbook isn't all glory as the members of the staff soon learned. Hard work and many long nights after school went into the composing of the 1960 Saga.

Staff

Talking over important decisions—Mr. Robie, Saga advisor.

Planning another page for the Sports section—Art House, Boys' Sports Editor.

Finally when the book went to press in February, the staff was able to rest. But when the Saga arrives and compliments are voiced by happy students, everyone agrees that the many hours of hard work were worth it.

Looking over information about the camera—Sharon Esterly, Art, Activities, and Photographer Editor, and Mike Epperly, Assistant.

Working hard to make the Saga deadline—Jane Hauser, Business Manager, and Sharon Malkowski, Assistant.

Deciding which picture to use—Sandy West, Faculty Editor, and Harriet Michalak, Assistant.

Ambitious Editor-in-Chief Becky Jeffrey.

Checking the Tattler for mistakes—Judy Benson, Assistant Editor, and Renee Lazette, News Editor.

'60 Tattler

Checking the accuracy of the scores—Jeff Jirinic, Sports Editor, and Don Kornowa, Assistant.

Working hard to meet the deadline—Kathleen Ermish, Robert Permar, Judy Vermett, and Don Stapleton, junior reporters.

Dependable Sandra Williams, Column Feature Editor, and Don Kellermier, Assistant.

The guiding light of the Tattler staff—Mrs. Marie Ersig, advisor.

Staff

Talking things over before the deadline—Lynn Sprengel, Interviews, Sande Robson, Column News, and Najet Bedra, Inquiring Reporter.

Lending a hand to the seniors is the job of junior reporters, Carol Danicke, Mary Alice Besier, Susan Getz, and Joann Grabner.

Bringing students up-to-date about important events at Woodward and the surrounding areas is one of the many goals of the Tattler. Faithfully they follow their motto, "Constantly, Consistently Constructive." The Tattler staff strives for perfection, and perfection is what they obtain.

Homecoming Queen

Mrs. David Swantek (Jane McGee) congratulates Lynn after the crowning.

Our queen flashes a smile for her subjects at the game.

Lynn Sprengel reigned over a thrilling Homecoming victory with Central. She was chosen by the student body after being nominated by the football team.

Lynn, with her escort Janis Baumanis, still can't believe she is really Woodward's queen.

Petite beauty, Judy Turner, draws praise from the homecoming crowd.

Homecoming

Homecoming evening was crisp and clear—a perfect night for a victorious game. Halftime activities included the crowning of the football queen and her court and an entertaining show by the band. The girls reigned over a standing room only crowd and a wonderful football game.

The crowd sighs as beautiful Joann Zaleski rides by.

First attendant, Judy Turner, is presented to the student body by her escort, Johnny Russell.

Joann Zaleski, standing with her escort, Elliot Mansour, gives thanks to everyone.

Woodward

Long hours were spent in rehearsing the memorable half-time performances of the 1959-1960 Woodward High School Band. To raise money for the purchasing of new equipment, the band supported several tag days. With a portion of the money, the band acquired a new drum.

High School Band

In addition to holding several concerts during the year, the band also participated in many parades. The largest activity, however, was the annual Extravaganza, which was the high-light of the 1959-1960 season.

Drum Major and Twirlers

Several of the halftime shows this year were highlighted by the twirling of fire batons. The band provided background music while the high-stepping majorettes went through their intricate routines. The girls spent many long hours of practice at camp, after school, and during dancing lessons.

The leaders of the band-Twirlers, Joann Zaleski and Deanna Rodenberger, with Drum Major, Dick Hollabaugh, stand at attention.

The Twirlers and the Drum Major were chosen for their dancing and twirling ability.

Dressed for "The West Side Story," Dick and the girls strike a pose.

Majorettes

The majorettes are putting their best foot forward at the mass meeting.

Japanese Show

Authentic costumes and lovely music sparked the performance of this Oriental show.

West Side Story

The majorettes presented an interpretive ballet based on the music from the West Side Story.

Russian Show

The whole band dressed to the theme of the show. They played a selection of Russian folk songs while the majorettes did folk dances.

Gigi

Selections from the Broadway musical "Gigi" inspired this clever show.

Pretty peasant dresses and Russian Cossack costumes for the whole band made the Russian show a big success.

L to R—Majorettes in full-dress are: Diana Vincent, Lusette Mason, Rochelle Saris, Karen Walter, Bonnie Drew, Sandra Wellever, Sandra Carpenter, and Barbara Birt.

1960 Student Council Queen

Jo Ann Zaleski

A crisp snowy evening was the scene for the Area Student Council Dance, "Blue Mist." Jo Ann Zaleski, elected by popular vote, represented Woodward. Even though the weather was hazardous, everyone who attended enjoyed an evening that they will long remember.

F.N.A.

Conducted tours through the area hospitals attracted the members of the F.N.A. To increase their treasury this year, the members sold Christmas cards. The spook show, which will be remembered around W.H.S. for a long while, set the mood for the coming Halloween season.

The opportunities and rewards of teaching are explored with zeal by the Future Teachers. The members study different methods and qualifications of teaching at their meetings. Every year, the F.T.A. serves at all of the teachers' meetings. An annual scholarship is awarded on Recognition Day.

We Marched To Victory

A desire to win, a great deal of talent, and a fine coaching staff proved to be the rewarding combination for the 1959-60 varsity football season. With an over-all record of five wins, one tie, and three losses, Woodward placed second in city-league competition. Six Polar Bears placed on the all-city teams, while five players received honorable mention. This season was one of which Woodward could be proud.

Alert and competent are Brad Freeman, Gerald Fye, and David Sievers, managers of Woodward equipment.

Wendell Boyd breaks away for a first down against Clay.

WOODWARD 12—CLAY 20

Last year's Great Lakes League champions, the Clay Eagles, managed to hold Woodward's fast backfield to only 12 points. Our first touchdown came on a reverse play with Russ Varner going the distance. In the final 13 seconds of the game, Wendell Boyd broke away for a 65-yard drive to score the final touchdown of the night.

WOODWARD 18—MACOMBER 6

Roger Truss scampered 60 yards in the first quarter to give the Bears the opening TD. Woodward scored again midway through the second quarter with full-back Wendell Boyd pounding over from the seven. Macomber then scored their lone TD with only 20 seconds remaining in the first half. It was still anyone's game until Don Kornowa fought his way 49-yards during the fourth quarter for Woodward's third and clinching touchdown.

WOODWARD 32—SCOTT 12

Scoring in every period, Woodward defeated the Bulldogs to put themselves on top in the City League standings. When Scott employed a nine to ten man line in an attempt to stop the Bears' backfield, quarterback Jim Robinson took to the air and connected on six out of fourteen passes. Woodward's offense and defense proved too much for the Bulldogs and allowed the Bears to win by 20 points.

WOODWARD 20—CENTRAL 13

Woodward's Bears, going into the second half, caught fire and diminished Central's lead of 13-0. Three touchdowns climaxed a fine victory. Don Kornowa scored the first touchdown, going over from the four yard line. The pass from Robinson to Provonsha was good for the extra two points. Terry Provonsha caught a 20-yard TD pass to put Woodward in the lead 14-13. Don Kornowa made a spectacular 73-yard run for the final touchdown of the game.

WOODWARD 6—WAITE 6

After a hard-played defensive game during the first three quarters, Don Kornowa finally banged over from the one yard line after Woodward had driven 86-yards. This put the Bears in the lead 6-0. Then with only a minute and thrity-five seconds remaining to be played, a Woodward pass was intercepted. The Bears couldn't stop a Waite touchdown pass which ended the game with a 6-6 tie.

WOODWARD 16—LIBBEY 6

A 75-yard drive by the Bears gave Jim Robinson the chance to score the first tally of the game. Taking a handoff on a double reverse, which caught the entire Libbey defense off-guard, Russ Varner sped 37-yards around left end for the final W.H.S. touchdown during the second quarter. Rain hampered the players, and there was no more scoring during the rest of the game.

WOODWARD 16—WHITMER 14

A touchdown by Don Kornowa from the one yard line followed a 79-yard drive downfield, opening one of Woodward's most evenly matched games. The second Woodward touchdown was made mid-way through the third quarter with Kornowa again going over from the two yard line. A pass from Robinson to Boyd made the winning two points. This game was one of the finest of the season and an example of outstanding football.

WOODWARD 12—CANTON CENTRAL 22

Two Woodward fumbles seemed to make the difference in this game with unbeaten Canton recovering both of them and going all the way each time. The Bears, coming back strong in the second quarter, scored twice. Wendell Boyd broke away for a 57-yard touchdown run with Don Kornowa scoring the second touchdown from the twelve yard line. Despite Woodward's 12-8 lead at halftime, Canton scored twice during the second half and prevented the Bears from scoring again.

WOODWARD 8—DEVILBISS 36

The unbeaten Tigers, who have now won their sixth title in the last seven seasons, proved too strong for the Bears in the deciding game for the City Championship. Woodward, scoring their only TD in the last quarter, was the only team in Toledo, including independent St. Francis, to score against DeVilbiss. Our TD was set up on a Robinson to Kornowa pass play in the third period which gained sixty yards. Kornowa barrelled over three plays later. This ended a very successful season for the Bears.

City Champs

Teamwork, courage, stamina, and desire proved to be the winning formula during the 1959-1960 basketball season. Experience seemed to be the primary factor of the Woodward Polar Bears this year as they fought their way to the top of the City League.

Woodward's Polar Bears ended a spectacular season with an 11-1 City League record and a 16-2 over-all record. Coach Darrell Clay with his dynamic personality led the Polar Bears to one of the finest records in the history of Woodward.

WOODWARD 72—SYLVANIA 67

Paced by veterans Butch Komives and Terry Provonsha, Woodward won its basketball opener with Sylvania. The Wildcats led at the end of each of the first three quarters. Woodward's Bears taking advantage of the many Sylvania mistakes in the last quarter scored the clinching points.

WOODWARD 61—ST. FRANCIS 33

Once again Komives with 29 points and Provonsha with 15 led the way as the Woodward cagers managed an easy non-league victory over the Knights.

WOODWARD 60—DE VILBISS 58

Maurice Kocher, playing his first year of varsity basketball, poured in 20 points as the Bears downed DeVilbiss in Woodward's first city league game. It was a hard-fought game with neither team taking much of a lead. Komives hit a 15-foot jump shot with 2:21 of playing time left to hand the Bears the win.

TERRY PROVONSHA

WOODWARD 66—ROGERS 53

Butch Komives and Terry Provonsha teamed up to pump in 23 and 17 points, respectively, to give W.H.S. its fourth straight victory of the season. Rogers scored a fast 6 points against the Bears at the beginning of the game, but the Bears saved themselves by regaining the lead.

WOODWARD 56—MACOMBER 39

During the first half, the Bears held their own and were leading 24-15 at halftime. Then the Craftsmen used a zone defense which gave W.H.S. trouble. Macomber pulled ahead with 4:19 left in the third period until a jump-shot by Bobby Brighton put the Bears in front for good. Leading the scoring, Butch Komives connected for 28 points.

WOODWARD 73—LIBBEY 61

Although the Polar Bears took an early lead, they led by only one point at halftime. Woodward had a fight on its hand during the third quarter when the scrappy Cowboys pushed ahead by 7 points. Then Kornowa and Komives started a scoring spree, with Kornowa scoring a three-pointer to put the Bears in the lead. Scoring 8 of the last 10 points, Komives ended the game with 28 points followed by Provonsha with 15.

WOODWARD 79—CLAY 58

Another fine basketball game was won by the Bears against the Clay Eagles. Butch Komives led the team to victory with 23 points. Woodward's hard-fighting Bears had little trouble defeating Clay as they never came to within threatening distance of the Polar Bears.

WOODWARD 53—SCOTT 55

A driving jump-shot by Scott's Ray Wolford during the final 6 seconds of the game was the deciding play, handing the Polar Bears their first loss of the season. W.H.S staged a terrific fourth period scoring spree against the Bulldogs, which tied the game at 53-53. With 12 seconds remaining, Butch Komives pumped in a free throw to tie the game. High-scoring Polar Bears were Provonsha with 19 and Komives with 16.

DON KORNOWA

WOODWARD 76—CENTRAL 58

Romping over Central, Woodward proved superior in this City League duel. Except for a 2-2 deadlock in the beginning moments of the game, the Bears had an easy victory with a 34-22 lead at halftime. The Bears were not challenged during the second half. High scorers were Bob Brighton and Butch Komives scoring 17 points each.

WOODWARD 49—WHITMER 42

Whitmer proved to be more of a challenge to the Polar Bears than was expected. Woodward seemed to relax a little in this game as they maintained a small lead throughout it. Butch Komives scored all but 19 of the points. Nevertheless, the slim lead of only 7 points proved to be enough for the Polar Bears.

Terry Provonsha once more led Woodward to another City League victory as he scored 23 points. The Polar Bears staged a wonderful performance at the free throw line, which proved to be more than the Cowboys could handle.

WOODWARD 61—WAITE 37

Waite's Indians tried to slow the mighty Polar Bears by freezing the ball. But Woodward played a tremendous second half and wound up 24 points ahead of the Indians. Terry Provonsha and Butch Komives netted 21 points and 18 points respectively. This game was another step up the ladder of victory for W.H.S.

The Cleveland team then scored six free throws, and Woodward suffered its second defeat of the season. Terry Provonsha was the ace scorer in this game with 35 points.

WOODWARD 77—CENTRAL 64

Woodward ended the season in a blaze of glory with a 13 point victory over Central. An 11 point scoring spree clinched the City League Championship for the Polar Bears with 6:30 remaining in the game. Ace scorers Howard Komives and Terry Provonsha had 24 points and 20 points respectively to give the Bears an 11-1 City League record.

Girls'

Playing Cupid during Leap Year.

In the Good Old Summertime—Sue Meinen, Donna Adams, and Carolyn Lewandowski.

This was a year of new additions in the girls' physical education department. To accommodate more than 1200 girls, Mrs. Barbara Schwanger was added to the W.H.S. faculty, aiding Miss Catherine McClure and Mrs. Elizabeth Ollendorf in their work. Arlene Bierly, Flora McKenzie, and Suzanne Sweney, student teachers, gained valuable experience while doing their practice teaching.

For the first time in Woodward's history, an eight o'clock gym class was held.

Rocking rhythm—
Teeter-totter

Discussing the day's activities—Mrs. Schwanger, Bess Hatzinikolis, and Nancy Lindhorst.

Sports

Those girls who took band, five subjects, or who had work permits found this a helpful way of adjusting their programs. Besides the usual activities, girls had an enjoyable time participating in intramural volleyball, basketball, softball, and bowling. Additional equipment was obtained for each sport, including a new drum for dancing.

This year the gym instructors were certainly successful in helping the girls to acquire sportsmanship and leadership abilities.

Round and round it goes—Sandra Wormington.

Okay, let's go.—
Merry-go-round

Is this good exercise for reducing, girls?—The Juniors

Another score for the blue.

Let's not be a gutterduster—Janice Wherry.

Enjoying themselves before class—Diane Cates and Sandy Banks.

Someone must have yelled fire.

Will they make the return?

Are you ready?—Sherri Smenner and Nancy Lindhorst.

Watch the birdie please—Donna Long and Doris Sakheim.

AND THERE WAS LIGHT.

Fades the light,
And afar
Goeth day,

WOODWARD ALMA MATER

Alma Mater Woodward High School
Colors white and blue.
Polar Bears we claim as mascot,
Proud we are of you.
Lift our colors to the heavens;
Let them wave on high.
Hail to thee, Our Alma Mater,
Hail to Woodward High.
